

THE ALBERTINE STATUTE

Albertine Statute – March 4, 1848

Article 24

The Rights and Duties of Citizens

All inhabitants of the kingdom, whatever their rank or title, are equal before the law. All shall enjoy civil and political rights, and shall be eligible to civil and military office, except as otherwise provided by law.