

Committee for 1796 Armistice Events

Sergio Barbero

Trustee

Sergio Barbero has served as a board member of the Commune of Cherasco from 1995 to 2000 and from 2014 to the present. He was President of the Culture Committee from 1996 to 2001 and Council Member for Culture from 2000 to 2014. Since 2003, he has been responsible for the National Cherasco History Prize. Since 2007, he is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Enoteca Regionale del Barolo (Regional Winery of the Barolo), and as of 2008 – a member of its Executive Committee.

He is cofounder and member of the board of CISIM – Centro Internazionale Studi sugli Insediamenti Medioevali (International Center for the Study of Medieval Settlements).

Since 1982, Sergio Barbero has been working in the field of financial leasing at the Rolfo Ltd. Company in Bra (Province of Cuneo).

Benedetto De Benedetti

President

Benedetto De Benedetti is an entrepreneur with twenty years of experience in private equity.

After graduating from the Politecnico di Torino in 1984, he began his career as a consultant for Mergers & Acquisitions at KPMG, the Swiss multinational professional services network. He then held a managerial position in Corporate Development at the Piaggio Group.

Today, he is President of B&E Equities Ltd., an investment holding company specializing in alternative investments (private equity, venture capital, financial real estate etc.) in Italy and abroad.

In the past 15 years, he has acquired and participated in the management of businesses in a variety of sectors: mechanics, chemicals, financial services, facility management, telecommunications, in vivo diagnostics, in vitro diagnostics, logistics, cement, security, consumer electronics, real estate, information technology, and pharmaceuticals.

In 2002, together with wife Elisabetta, he established the De Benedetti-Cherasco 1547 (ONLUS – Not for Profit) Foundation.

Olivier Dubois

Member

Born in 1963 in France, a graduate in Economics and Commerce at the Deutsch-franzoesischesHochschulinstitutSaarbruecken and at the University of Metz. Worked in BMW as Project Manager International Communication in Munich. Joined the Fiat Group in 1991, where he served as director of PR for Lancia, director of Media & Budget, and director of the Internet Business Unit. Currently, works as director of Corporate Identity/Communication. He is also member of the Board of Directors of Audiweb Italy, President of the Commission for New Media of the UPA (Italian association of advertisers), Instructor in the Master's program in Communication of UPA - Ca' Foscari. Member of the Société Française de Bienfaisance and of Le Souvenir Napoléonien.

Franco Fino

Member

Francesco Fino graduated in Economics and Commerce at the Universitàdegli Studi of Turin. His professional activity has involved him in many of the principal cultural initiatives in Piedmont.

These include: Trustee of the Creonti Foundation, President of the Auditors of the Castello of Rivoli, Auditor of Foundation for the Campo Filadelfia soccer field, Comitato Italia 150 (commemorating 150 years to the unification of Italy), Turin's Clinical Industrial Research Park, the Bard Fortress Association, the International Horse Center Foundation, and the Giovanni and AnnamariaCottino Foundation.

Mr. Fino is active in numerous private companies as Trustee, Chairman of the Board of Auditors board, and as statutory auditor.

Nanni Olivero

Trustee

Nanni Olivero graduated in Political Science at the University of Turin. Currently, he serves as President and CEO of Amos Ltd., a leading provider of hospital services.

Nanni Olivero is an instructor of Healthcare Management at the Siena University Faculty of Medicine and Surgery. From 1995 to 1999, he was instructor of business organization at the Turin University School of Business Administration.

Previously, he was at KPMG Peat Marwick Consultants, Organization and Personnel Director at Cinzano Ltd. and Head of Marketing at UTET Ltd.

Nanni Olivero has written books on business organization, human resource management, communication, and health.