

BATTLE SIMULATION

The local groups simulate a battle that engages 400 Italian and foreign soldiers, belonging to various military units: infantry, artillery, corps of engineers, and cavalry.

The signing of the peace between the Piedmontese and the French was likewise reenacted, and celebrated by the troops and the population with dancing and singing.

The event closed with the laying of a commemorative wreath in remembrance of the casualties of war, and the monument in their honor was decorated with flowers for the occasion.
